

Helpful Important Links

These are suggested websites that are valuable resources for disaster preparedness:

1. Sign up for texts about disasters or potential disasters: www.alertsense.com
2. During a disaster, know what to take care of first:
www.willowhavenoutdoor.com/featured-wilderness-survival-blog-entries/the-core-four-managing-your-top-survival-priorities/
3. Another great survival website: www.graywolfsurvival.com
4. The government's 3-Day Kit list: www.ready.gov/build-a-kit/
5. Quake Feed app for your iPhone (other earthquake notification apps are available for iPhone and android platforms).
6. Take free online classes that help you move up a volunteer list when trying to volunteer during a disaster: www.training.fema.gov/nims/
7. There may be opportunities to volunteer nationally or internationally via Convoy of Hope (CERT is required, NIMS is suggested): <https://www.convoyofhope.org>
8. Sample local Chaplain and Incident Support organization (see if there is one like it in your community): www.stanwoodcamanoincidentssupport.org
9. Matt Simonis' Book on Church Disaster Preparedness: http://www.amazon.com/Your-Church-Ready-Approach-Preparedness/dp/1468076884/ref=sr_1_1?s=books&ie=UTF8&qid=1447109953&sr=1-1&keywords=matt+simonis